

A compliance officer in Amman cut off my climate pitch to ask one question: does this hit our green lending quota before the deadline.

Sustainability teams write the narrative. They do not sign the purchase order.

Compliance teams own the quota.
Missing it triggers a regulatory penalty, not a bad headline.

Across Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and Cambodia, banks buy climate data because non-compliance cost is priced and dated. Goodwill is not.

Even advisory work linking data pipelines to Korean investors gets pushed by a regulatory deadline, not pulled by an impact thesis.

Stop reading ESG decks to size demand. Read the mandate. Find out who gets penalized, and by when.
