

A bank compliance team in Amman cut off my climate data pitch halfway through. They only wanted one number.

Sustainability teams write the narrative. They do not sign the purchase order.

Compliance teams own the quota.
Missing it triggers a regulatory penalty, not a bad headline.

Local banks buy climate data because the cost of non-compliance is priced and dated. Goodwill is not.

Even the Korean investor advisory work is pushed by a regulatory deadline, not pulled by an impact thesis.

Stop reading ESG pitch decks. Find out who owns the compliance quota, and by when. That answer moves the capital.
