

A bank compliance team in Amman cut off my climate data pitch. They did not want the impact story, they wanted one number.

Sustainability teams write the narrative. They do not sign the purchase order.

Compliance teams own the quota.
Missing it triggers a regulatory penalty, not a bad headline.

Banks across Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and Cambodia buy climate data because non-compliance cost is priced and dated. Goodwill is not.

Even advisory work linking this pipeline to Korean investors is pushed by a regulatory deadline, not an impact thesis.
