

A bank compliance team cut off my climate pitch mid-sentence. They only wanted one number: the green lending quota deadline.

Sustainability teams write the narrative. They do not sign the purchase order.

Compliance teams own the quota.
Missing it triggers a regulatory penalty, not a bad headline.

Local banks buy climate data because non-compliance costs are priced and dated. Goodwill is not.

Even advisory work linking to Korean investors gets pushed by a regulatory deadline, not pulled by an impact thesis.
