

A bank compliance team in Amman cut off my climate data pitch. They only wanted one number.

Sustainability teams write the narrative. They do not sign the purchase order.

Compliance teams own the quota.
Missing it triggers a regulatory penalty, not a bad headline.

Banks buy climate data because the cost of non-compliance is priced and dated. Goodwill is not.

Even the Korean investor advisory work is pushed by a regulatory deadline, not pulled by an impact thesis.

Underwriting frontier climate exposure? Stop reading ESG decks. Read the mandate. Find out who gets penalized, and by when.
